ADVOCACY

RUN BY MEMBERS, FOR MEMBERS

AN ASSOCIATION WITH SHOOTING AND COUNTRY SPORTS AT HEART

At the Scottish Association for Country Sports (SACS), we understand how country sports add value and enjoyment to the lives of our members. This is because we ourselves are members and love living the life of country sports. In short, SACS is an association: run by members, for members.

STRONG AND COMMITTED NON-PROFIT ORGANISATION

SACS began in Scotland in 1994, but rapid and organic growth over the past 25 years has seen us attract members in England, Wales and Northern Ireland; we are truly UK-wide, representing and supporting all of our members across the country. As a not-for-profit organisation, we invest everything in helping our members.

Our commitment is demonstrated through our extensive work as a grassroots representative body. We protect our members' rights and lobby for their way of life, whichever shooting or country sports activity they participate in. Food, conservation, socialising; whatever their motivation, we fight for their rights.

MEMBERS FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE

Shooting and country sports is in the heart and soul of our members. SACS members come from every conceivable demographic and from all corners of the UK. We welcome all; young and old, male and female, city and country dweller, and we represent everyone.

WE OFFER FIREARMS ASSISTANCE

HIGHLY EXPERIENCED ADVISORY TEAM

The SACS firearms team are experts on both technical and licensing matters. With a long-standing track record in licensing, you can expect the best support for certificate grants, renewals, variations and dealing with the licensing problems that so often happen these days.

DEDICATED TEAM READY TO HELP

We consider it one of our most important tasks to help our members with any difficulties they may be facing with firearms. Our team members have great experience in de-escalating situations where police have been involved and will always aim to resolve matters before there is a need for lawyers.

To ensure great service, we monitor our phone and internet messages. Should you, therefore, be in a situation where you need urgent advice, our alert system will pick up on it and one of our advisors will get in touch with you.

FIGHTING FOR YOUR RIGHTS

We take our responsibility seriously and are always active, partnering with other UK representative bodies, to fight for gun ownership and usage rights on the political and legislative level.

We focus on doing the simple things right, which includes constant dialogue with politicians, changing proposals to legislation, and limiting further restrictions to our members' rights.
